

Parents©TOGETHER

"Family, Financial Responsibility & How Not to be Your Child's ATM"

Presented by Nathan Dungan

Author, Prodigal Sons & Material Girls: How Not To Be Your Child's ATM; Personal Finance: A Lifetime Responsibility (high school textbook); and Money Sanity Solutions: Linking Money + Meaning

Wednesday, November 10, 2010
9:15 AM, Greenwich Town Hall Meeting Room

101 Field Point Road

Where does a family go to learn healthy money habits? In an affluent but diverse town, how do we help our youth link their money decisions to our family values, set financial boundaries and build long-term healthy financial habits? Personal finance expert Nathan Dungan will share unique insights and successful formulas that have helped thousands of families develop a more sane, sustainable and thoughtful financial roadmap. In this highly interactive presentation, Dungan will offer stories, stats and scenarios that will help families chart a course for a more sustainable financial future and shift from a spend-centric mode to one that balances spending with saving and sharing.

Nathan Dungan is the founder and president of Share Save Spend®. For over 20 years, he has helped youth and adults link their money decisions to their values. One of the national media's go-to experts on family finances, he has been widely quoted in The New York Times, The Washington Post, The Wall Street Journal, USA Today, Business Week, and TIME magazine, and has been a featured guest on CBS, CNN and PBS. Mr. Dungan co-authored a textbook for high school students, Personal Finance: A Lifetime Responsibility (2009), which covers such topics as responsible uses of debit and credit cards, identity theft, buying a car, and creating a budget.

*Through its network of PTA delegates, Parents Together links parents of Greenwich public and independent schools to address issues that affect our children and community. For more than 30 years, Parents Together has provided parents with free lectures, newsletters and a comprehensive website. For the Fall 2010 issue of Parents Together Newsletter, visit our website: at* www.parentstogetherct.org